Advertiſement.

JUST printed in 8vo. at the Theatre in Oxford, and ready to be delivered to Subſcribers, Aluredi Beverlacenſis Annales, ſive Hiſtoria de geſtis regum Britanniæ, libris IX. E Codice pervetuſto, calamo exarato, in bibliotheca viri clariſſimi Thomæ Rawlinſoni, Armigeri, deſcripſit ediditque Thomas Hearne, A. M. Oxonienſis, qui & Præfatione, Notis, atque Indice illuſtravit. There are only an hundred and fourty eight Copies of this Book printed. The firſt Payment to the Subſcribers was ſix ſhillings the large, and four ſhillings the ſmall Paper. The ſecond Payment is to be the ſame with the firſt.

The Publiſher is now printing in 8vo. from an old MS. Mr. William Roper's Life of Sir Thomas More. To which will be ſubjoyn'd an anonymous Chronicle of England, intit'led, Anonymi Chronicon Godſtovianum, and a Deſcription of the painted Glaſs in the Pariſh Church of Fairford in Glouceſter-ſhire. There will be only an hundred and fourty eight Copies printed, and the Price to Subſcribers is to be ſixteen ſhillings the large, and eight ſhillings the ſmall Paper; whereof half is to be paid at the time of Subſcribing, and the Remainder when the Copies are delivered. Subſcriptions are taken in either by the Publiſher at Edmund-Hall, or by John Rance at the THEATRE Printing-Houſe in Oxford. As ſoon as this Work is printed, the Publiſher deſigns to put to the Preſs Mr. Camden's Elizabetha, whereof he hath got a Copy corrected and improv'd with very conſiderable Additions by the Author's own Hand; which Corrections and Additions were never yet printed.
